

Please do not make any changes to New Jersey's "do not call" list law. Our telephone rang non-stop from 7:00 am until 9:00 pm daily, including Sundays from telemarketors. I went so far as to shut the volume off and even now am considering removing all phones and using cell only due to the continual harassment from telemarketing calls. Please, don't make any changes in NJ.

Thank you.